

Dear Reader

This year, your summer getaway could be the best investment you've ever made...

Why join the hordes on holiday when you can take the journey of a lifetime with The Coaching Academy this July and August....

You enquired a while ago about training to become a coach, so I know you're interested in coaching. We've now got a deal that you simply cannot afford to miss. We can offer you something that travel agents and their late deals simply cannot match this summer...

Book on our July or August Coach Training Programme and you can take a friend or colleague to share this inspirational experience with you for completely FREE!

We'll also give you a FREE ticket worth £475 to see the USA's most successful life coach, Tony Robbins, when he presents his last ever UK show in London this October. See www.tonyinlondon.com for details about the event.

Becoming a coach will change your life. And there's no need to jump on a plane or travel half-way around the world to discover that.

We've done some research recently and discovered that one of the main reasons people enquire, but don't book onto our coach training programme is quite simply the cost...

I can understand that over £2,500 is a lot of money to spend on a training course – and although when you qualify as a coach, you will see your investment come back in no time at all - we've still taken a look at the cost to see what other ways we can help you to become a terrific coach.

You can get something from us that a travel agent can't match...

Have you got a friend that is also interested in coaching? Would a colleague like to take the course? If you book onto our July or August Coach Training Programme, you can both benefit from this offer.

We're letting you in on something very good indeed. Our coach training programme is regarded as the highest value programme in the UK and better value for money than any other Coach Training School* (**independent research from LM Research & Marketing Consultancy has proven this.*)

You can share the cost between you both, or you might just want to bring someone along to the live training weekend for support.

Whatever way you look at it, you'll be getting TWO places for the price of ONE!

Plus a FREE Tony Robbins ticket, worth £475 for yourself.

...On a course that is proven to be the highest value programme in the UK...and that's even before we're offering you double for your money!

And that's not all. The Coaching Academy's Coach Training Programme offers the very best in coach training. Here's some of the responses we get from our students:

"What a fantastic weekend. The other students and the trainers were very supportive and gave me inspiration to complete this fab course, with a superb start."
Cynthia Phillips

"The weekend was the most uplifting and inspiring weekend I've had. It really has been life-changing. Thank you!" Joanne Coulson

"From sceptic to enthusiastic advocate in two days. The course successfully convinced me of the need, the way and the destination. A great learning experience."
Mike Megginson
